To: Agent D. Scully>From: Motor Vehicles DivisionRe: Vehicle Requisition Requests V-2830492, V-9226528, V-83774655

Agent D. Scully:

On the above listed vehicles signed out to you, we have determinedthat upon their return major structural damage has been found to thefront seat. Our mechanics cannot determine the cause of this stress onthe metal. We would like your explanation regarding this matterimmediately.

A. VanderhossMotor Vehicles Division

"Signed out to me?"

"Ah... I had to sign your name because they wouldn't give me any morecars..."

To: A. Vanderhoss>From: Agent D. ScullyRe: Vehicle Requisition Requests V-2830492, V-9226528, V-83774655

The only thing that I can think of is possibly the failure of mypartner to adjust the set when we change drivers. given there is adistinct height difference between us, I suggest this could be thesource of your problem.

INTERNAL MEMO:

To: Agent D. Scully>From: Motor Vehicles DivisionRe: Vehicle Requisition Requests V-2830492, V-9226528, V-83774655

Agent D. Scully:

Our records show that you're over six feet high, as well as Agent F.Mulder. Therefore, your explanation is not possible. So what are youand your partner doing to break the front seats of your cars?

T. VanderhossMotor Vehicles Division

"Broken front seats...hmm..."

"Mulder, look over there."

"What...Ow!"

"Now we're both the same height.."

INTERNAL MEMO:

To: A. Vanderhoss>From: Agent D. ScullyRe: Vehicle Requisition Requests V-2830492, V-9226528, V-83774655

I have never been, nor ever will be over six feet tall. Please go backand check your records. I have also included the documentation of thespecific cases the vehicles were used on. As you can see, any damageto the vehicles in question occurred during an investigation.

Agent D. Scully

"'During an investigation'? I like the way that sounds..."

"Mulder..."

"You throw that, we'll have to explain how it got broken..."

"Justifiable homicide..."

INTERNAL MEMO:

To: Agent D. Scully>From: Motor Vehicles DivisionRe: Vehicle Requisition Requests V-2830492, V-9226528, V-83774655

Agent D. Scully:

We have confirmed with Personnel that you are rather shorter thanlisted on our records. As a result, please disregard the previousmemos abut the structural damage to the vehicles. In the future,please remember to adjust the seat accordingly. And tell Agent F.Mulder the guys here give him a big thumbs-up.

T. VanderhossMotor Vehicles Division

"Gee, I wonder what that's supposed to mean..."

"Mulder..."

"Hey, I didn't say anything..."

"And you're not going to, right?"

"Ah, I can't really breathe, Scully..."

To: Agent F. MulderX Files Section SupervisorFrom: J. Kilmer, Communication Equipment Division SupervisorRe: Cel Phone Replacement and Usage

Agent F. Mulder:

Upon reviewing our records we have discovered that both you and Agent D.Scully have managed to achieve an unusually high number of requests forreplacement or repair of the cel phones assigned to you both as field agents.While we are not in a position to verify or deny the validity of your claims,we are at a loss as to why you and Agent Scully manage to go through so manyphones. Can you possibly supply a explanation for this, as we are coming upto our own budget meeting and need to justify any further replacements foryour section.

J. KilmerCommunication Equipment Division Supervisor

"Ring, ring..."

"Who's there?"

"Fox."

"Fox who?"

"Foxy FBI agent looking for hot redhead to chase aliens with..."

"Sorry... wrong number."

To: J. KilmerCommunication Equipment Division SupervisorFrom: Agent F. MulderX Files Section SupervisorRe: Cel Phone Replacement and Usage

Mr. Kilmer:

In the course of our investigations we are often in rather unique situationsthat unfortunately have resulted in the loss or damage of the cel phones.Sorry about that. But you have my reports that detail every incident; and I'msure that if you took this to your budget meeting you would be able tojustify keeping my section supplied with the phones.

Agent F. MulderX Files Section Supervisor

"Ring, ring..."

"Who's there?"

"Orange."

"Orange who?"

"Orange you glad I didn't make any jokes about aliens this time?"

"The number you have reached is out of service..."

To: Agent F. MulderX Files Section SupervisorFrom: J. Kilmer, Communication Equipment Division SupervisorRe: Cel Phone Replacement and Usage

Agent F. Mulder:

We don't doubt the claims themselves; just the circumstances listed. Forexample, Form R-14993872 says that you had the unit melt down in your jacketpocket. Form R-99382778 says that you left it in a boxcar that later blew up.Form R-16384772 states that you dropped it while leaping on a train.

Our department is open to any and all ideas; but to suggest that all of thesethings happen to you on a regular basis is pushing your credibility with us,Agent Mulder. And I see that you have a recent claim now for another phone;since it seems to have been short-circuited by some type of manure gettinginside the phone. We will consider this request in light of your pastreports.

J. KilmerCommunications Equipment Division Supervisor

"Ring, ring..."

"Who's there?"

"Mulder."

"Mulder who?"

"Mulder who's in a lot of trouble again..."

"Busy signal..."

To: J. KilmerCommunication Equipment Division SupervisorFrom: Agent F. MulderX Files Section SupervisorRe: Cel Phone Replacement and Usage

Mr. Kilmer:

Whatever you may think of my previous claims, having a cel phone isimperative to my continued ability to function as a field agent. Agent Scullyand Assistant Director Skinner can attest that having this vitalcommunication link is important to my work. Please take this intoconsideration before you invalidate any further claims.

Agent F. MulderX Files Section Supervisor

"Mulder..."

"Yes?"

"What is this?"

"My... new phone..."

"It's two cans with a piece of string tied between them..."

"Ah... can I borrow your phone, Scully?"

"No long-distance calls to 1-900-PLEASE-U"

"How about to 1-900-FBI-BABE?"

"How about I show you what I can do with this string..."

The aforementioned magazines are useful in determining humanbehaviour, and thereful useful in my keeping up with the latestdevelopments in the field of psychology, in the same way that Agent D.Scully's medical journals help her stay aware of the latest medicalinnovations.

"How did I get into this?"

"Well, I needed an example..."

"Good. I need an example to practise my newest autopsy techniques on..."

Agent F. Mulder:

Upon careful consideration of your report, we have decided not toapprove it. But to be fair, we have also decided to refuse Agent D.Scully's previous claim for her medical journals. Please inform herthat the amount will be deducted from her next paycheck.

To: Agent F. MulderX Files Section SupervisorFrom: Winston J. RegartFirearms DivisionRe: Firearm usage in the field.

Agent F. Mulder:

It can come to my attention that you and Agent Dana Scully have been usingweapons other than the ones officially assigned to you by the Bureau.Witnesses have observed you carrying Glocks, Walther PPKs and Sig Sauers; toname a few. Please elaborate on what exactly you are using in the field andwhy you are not following current regulations.

Winston J. RegartFirearms Division

"What is this, Mulder?"

"Well, obviously someone thinks that we're using illegal handguns."

"Of course you wouldn't have any unregistered weapons that the Bureau doesn'tknow about, Mulder."

"Of course, Scully."

"That you'd tell me about."

"Of course, Scully."

To: Winston J. RegartFirearms DivisionFrom: Agent F. MulderX Files Section SupervisorRe: Firearm usage in the field.

Agent Scully and I have always used the properly assigned weapons issued tous by the Bureau. Honest. We have always informed the proper people andfilled out the paperwork if we have upgraded our firearms or, perchance, havelost the weapon due to some accident. Any other reports are erroneous and youshould just ignore them.

Agent F. MulderX Files Section Supervisor

"What do you mean, if we lost our pistols?"

"It can happen, Scully."

"To you, yes. I've been thinking of getting your hand Velcroed to keep thegun there."

"Only if you wear a thick woolly suit..."

To: Agent F. MulderX Files Section SupervisorFrom: Winston J. RegartFirearms DivisionRe: Firearm usage in the field.

While I realise that both you and Agent Scully are active in the field and doenter into somewhat dangerous and strange circumstances, I must again remindyou that we have verified accounts of you using weapons other than the onesofficially registered to you. Please cease and desist immediately from usingany such items for official business. Also, please do not keep asking forextra supplies (eg. bullets) for various models that you supposedly don'thave in your possession.

Winston J. RegartFirearms Division

"Now they've got a problem with the bullets."

"Well, Mulder... I've heard rumours about those dumdums you use..."

"Oh, really? And what did you tell them?"

"That I always thought you carried blanks."
